

I believe the laws in wisconsin should stay as they are. I personally do not like receiving calls from companies that I no longer to business with. If I want to do business with them again, I have their number and will call them. I used to get so many call I had to get caller ID to weed out the garbage. Now I don't need caller ID anymore, thanks to the DNC list.